The Stephen R. Booher American Inns of Court is holding their 25th Anniversary Gala at the Embassy Suites Fort Lauderdale, 11 S E 17th Street Causeway, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33316 on Saturday, March 3, 2018. The event will honor the past presidents of the Stephen R. Booher American Inns of Court.

The Stephen R. Booher American Inns of Court is an organization that works to improve professionalism in the legal field. The organization is comprised of judges from Broward County, attorneys who either work in Broward County or reside in Broward County, and law students from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law and St. Thomas University School of Law. One of the main ways the Inns of Court accomplish its goal is to mentor the law students and young attorneys in the group.

Among the Past Presidents being honored at the event are: Judge Melanie May, Judge Barry Stone, Judge Ronald Rothschild (ret.), Judge Ilona Holmes, General Magistrate Barry Seltzer, Judge Sharon Zeller, Judge Charles Greene, Judge Susan Aramony, Judge Martin Bidwill, Judge John Bowman, Judge Raaj Singhal, Jeffrey Hirsch, Esq., Todd Stone, Esq., Juliette Lippman, Esq. Kenneth Joyce, Esq., Michael Fischler, Esq. The event will also be honoring the three judges who passed away who were also past presidents: Judge Patricia Cocalis, Judge Susan Aramony and Judge Marcia Beach.

Tickets to the event are $90 and include cocktails, dinner, music, dancing and complimentary self-parking. For reservations and further information, please contact Jean Sherman, Fischler & Friedman, P.A., 1000 S. Andrews Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33316, (954) 763-5778, booherinn@gmail.com.
